THE FOLLOWING RULES APPLY FOR SPLASH PARTIES

- Party must be booked 7 days in advance. A 3 day notice must be given to reschedule or cancel, or 1/2 of the fee will be forfeited.
- Centennial Park staff will call 3 days in advance for final head count prior to your party. You are responsible for final count, even if count decreases. Additional guests will be paid for at time of arrival.
- Cakes are permitted. Outside food and beverages are allowed, no glass or alcohol.
- Decorations (balloons, centerpieces, etc.) are permitted. Crepe paper and confetti are not.
- The zero-depth pool and surrounding deck area are closed during evening swim lessons from 6:45 - 8:00 PM on Monday & Wednesday through July.
- If park closes for inclement weather, the party will be rescheduled at no additional charge. If the party has started, rain checks for admission will be issued to your guests for re-entry into the pool on another date. If food package has not been served, the party can be rescheduled at no additional charge.
- If Centennial Park is open to the public, the party will take place as scheduled. If weather is questionable, call (708) 349-4FUN for updated information.
- Splash party participants may enter the pool before the scheduled start of the party, however, the pool's party host & party pavilion will not be available until the scheduled start time. The parent party host must meet/admit party guests that arrive prior to scheduled party time at the pool's entrance gate.
- PLEASE NOTE: The pool does not have an area to store party supplies for groups that arrive prior to the scheduled party start time.
